THE FOREIGN MARKET.

Late on Saturday evening, after banking hours, London advices were received to the effect that the Bank of England had lost on balances the further sum of £189,000. To-day another despatch came to hand stating that the additional sum of £28,000 had likewise been withdrawn. These incients, however, did not materially affect the for. eign market, consols being quoted at 93%, Erie at oan advanced to 3 per cent premium. American securities were dull and heavy. The issues of 1867 commanded 93% a 93%, and the new fives 88%; tenforties declined %, and were held at 88%. No disturbance on the English side is reported, and it is reasonable to suppose that the fluctuations marked have simply been obedient to the condition of affairs in England recorded on Saturday.

Money on call was active in the early hours of ousiness, and lenders succeeded in getting 7 per cent, the rate standing 6 a 7 per cent. Subsequently, when accounts had been generally made up, the rate declined in open market to 5 per cent. Prime commercial paper found ready sale at 7 to 9 per cent discount. The banks still continue to seek employment for their surplus, and purchased liberally of good mercantile securities. Foreign exchange remained as on Saturday, although somewhat weaker, concessions in actual business being made at 1/2 per cent. This is only a natural reaction after the recent advance in exchange, which latter fact, coupled with the advance in gold, made a prompt market for large quantities f domestic produce, and led to the creation of a resh supply of commercial bills. The amount of egal tenders outstanding to-day was $355,478,000, eing a decrease of $22,000 since last report. The internal revenue receipts were $700,000. The Freasury balances at the close of business to-day

| 74,000,000 | 27,000,000 | GOLD STEADY—117% a 118%. The gold room showed none of the symptoms which were anticipated by many when the market closed on Saturday. It was then thought that totay would reveal either a combination formed to appreciate the value or develop the necessity for ts early shipment. Neither of these contingencies, thus far, has presented itself. In fact gold is weaker, and sympathizes with the similar weakness that has already been recorded with reference to exchange. This result is perhaps partially due to reports from abroad that the Continental values, have been greatly exaggerated. Encourage ment was derived from the improvement in our bonds: from the steadiness of the London market; from the tone of confidence reported by the latest great inequality existed between the imports and exports of the country; and, finally, from the very meeting of the Board of Directors of the Bank of England the present rate of discount will be reluced. The fact seems to be generally accepted that the disturbance on the Vienna Bourse has not been of sufficient importance to maaffect the money centres of the world. It merely has superinduced a caution and contraction which, in obedience to the law of mance, has extended to the extremes of monetary influence. The effort, therefore, of the bulls" of the market to take advantage of this event er of any of its suppositious results has so far proved abortive, and we have a gold market not too severely speculative in its tendencies to sugges the possibility of an immediate crisis. Gold opened at 118%, but soon dropped to 118 a 117%, then to 117%, recovering to and closing at 117% a 117%. The fluctuations in the market to-

United States Bonds were strong and in good demand by foreign bankers. United States sixes, 1881, coupon advanced to 122 a 1234 and 68's to 118% a 110. A general improvement was observable along the line. It is reported that the supply is unequal to the demand, the German market being especially active for American securities. The following table will show the closing prices. It is also stated by despatch from Washington that the last of $50,000,000 new bonds have been shipped to Europe. STOCKS UNSTEADY.

The market opened firm, but speedily declined, in response to the general tone recorded elsewhere. The leading feature was Pacific Mail, which, opening at 47%, went off to 45%, recovered at 46%, and closed at 45%. Western Union advanced to 86%, but subsequently declined to 86. Eric sold at an advance of 62%, sympathizing strongly with foreign advices. New York Central was sold at 100% a 100%, and Rock Island ranged from 108% to 108%. St. Paul common advanced from 55% to 55%, and improvement may be noticed in the steadiness of C., C. and I C., the price of which during the day hovered around 30% a 30%. Lake Shore advanced & per cent. The whole market, however, was dull and suffered a fractiona decline after the opening sales, from which, with a lew exceptions, there was little rally at the close.

Cotton Quiet; Receipts at the Ports, 7,774 Bales-Flour Firm-Wheat Easter-Corn Lower-Oats Firmer-Pork Nominally Steady-Lard Lower-Groceries Quiet-Petroleum Steady-Naval Stores Dull-Whiskey Firmer.

MONDAY, Mny 19-6 P. M. Trade circles were very quiet to-day as a general thing, and business was light both on and off Change. The extreme firmness of freights and the higher rates of vessels for charter as compared with a week ago tended to greatly restrict the export movement in grain, and rates for next month being even higher than those now current, buyers for forward delivery were more cautious. Flour was quiet but steady, lines of extra shipping being held particularly firm. Wheat was quiet, owing to the continued scarcity of prime samples, the high rates of freight and the indisposition of sellers to grant any concession from the rates recently current for lots to arrive. On the spot prices were lower. Corn was still heavy under a moderate inquiry, and comparatively free receipts of old, some of which was green and pressed for sale at lower prices. Prime old was held pretty firm, but the steady decline of new brings old with it. Oats were in demand and firmer. Whiskey was also firmer, with a fair inquiry. Pork and lard were dull and prices were decidedly in buyers' favor, particularly for lard. Freights were very firm, and extreme rates were demanded. Groceries were quiet, but, with the exception of a weak market for raw sugar, prices were firm. Naval stores were neglected, and prices were, to a great extent, nominal. Petroleum attracted but little attention, yet prices were without noticeable change.

Corron.-Spot cotton was neglected and nominal, with a downward tendency, at the quotations annexed. For future delivery the transactions reached a fair aggregate, but at declining prices, the closing rates showing a recession of 8-16, nor it. We sum in thus:

JOSEPH SCHMITT,

SANDWICH ISLANDS ANNEXATION.

Departure of a Special Commissioner to Report Upon the Public Feeling in the

From the Alta California, May 12.)
Our special correspondent in Washington, under date of May 4, sends us very important news, which will be of great interest to the Pacific Coast. He informs us in advance of all other news heretofore published that Colonel A. B. Steinberger, of Washington, has been sent out by our government to feel the Sandwich Islands puise on the subject of annexation to the United States. Colonel Steinberger, the Commissioner appointed for this purpose, arrived in this city on the 4th inst., and is now at the Grand Hotel. His purpose in coming to this coast has been kept a profound secret thus far. It is not yet reported when he will leave for the islands.

The following is the letter sent us by our correis not yet reported when he will leave for the islands.

The following is the letter sent us by our correspondent:—

The question of the annexation of the Sandwich island to the United States is being seriously considered in Washington. A few weeks ago it was rumored in diplomatic circles that a special commissioner would be sent out to feel the Sandwich Island pulse and to report on the practicability of the scheme, as well as the general disposition of the people most interested in the matter. This rumor had not assumed definite character at that time and was not generally credited. Now it is known—though the public have not been apprised of the fact—that the plan has been consummated. Colonei A. B. Steinberger, of this city, who has long enjoyed the confidence of President Grant, has been appointed to perform this mission and has aiready departed for the Pacific coast.

It is contemplated to have the matter of annexation looked into and reported upon in a manner somewhat similar to that adopted in the preliminary negotiations in St. Domingo. There are not, however, as many objections made to this policy as were urged against the St. Domingo scheme, and an effort is not likely to stir up as much opposition. The restrictionists and the enemies of the administration will undoubtedly raise a howl about it; but, if the people of the Sandwich Islands are ripe for the movement, and Colonei Steinberger's report is favorable, we may expect that the President will recommend annexation in his next message.

Full authority is given to the Commissioner to use for this mission any war vesset on the Pacific coast which may be available and suitable for the purpose. His instructions are not made public, but your correspondent has ascertained that he is authorized to make investigations and report on the results of his work. He is a man of bright, kneen intelligence, and possesses a bright eye that sees everything. He is well suited to the work before him, and will no doubt create a favorable impression wherever he goes. His

If this class of advocates for the annexation of the Kingdom of Hawaii are not careful they will be aught in the meshes of their own logid, and prove by their zeal in this case that their opposition to the other was inspired by no higher motive than late for an administration which they could not control.

LITERARY CHIT-CHAT.

THE REV. J. S. C. ABBOTT has expended the latest efforts of his historical whitewash brush upon the character of De Soto. Dodd & Mead publish the book, which makes out this cruel, ambi-tious, selfish and corrupt Spaniard to be a brilliant hero, slightly touched with insanity.

SAYS MR. HAMERTON, in his "Intellectual Life,"
"A language cannot be thoroughly learned by an adult without five years" residence in the country where it is spoken, and without habits of close observation a residence of twenty years is insufficient." This is not encouraging, but it is the truth. Happily a knowledge which falls far short of mastery may be of practical use in the common affairs of life, and may even afford some initiation into foreign literature.

The French distorian, Thierry, who died last month, published his first work fifty years ago, and the proofs of his last were brought to him on his death bed. It was an article in the Revue des Deux

THE BANDWRITING of the late Chief Justice Chase was very peculiar. He wrote a singularly small and almost feminine hand, which, however, he turned off with great rapidity and nervous force. His private letters (which were more numerous than those of almost any other public man who filled stations so eminent) were models of terse and clear English style. THE LATE SAINT-MARC GIRARDIN WAS not by any means of the most brilliant school of French jour-nalists. His style was pedantic, and he could not impete with Prevost-Paradol's nimble saure, or with Lemoinne's easy common sense, or with Weiss' paradoxical, but lively pen.

Who whote "Betsey and I are Out," is as vexed a question as the authorship of "Rock Mo to Sicep, Mother," or "Beautiful Snow" was a few years ago. The latter was claimed with equal positiveness by a lady, Mrs. Akers, and by J. W. Watson, who incorporated it in his collected poems. And now comes another lady writer, Mrs. N. S. Emerson, and claims the ballad "Betsey and Are Out," so widely published by Will M. Carleton as his in Harper's and in book form, as her property, written in 1869, and loaned in MS, copies to friends. She charges Mr. Carieton with a "literary piracy" and with printing her poem as nis own in a "mutilated and feeble form." the battle of the books goes on, and the ballad, which has no poetic merit, but is marked by a certain rude force and simplicity, is multiplied by rival publishers, each advertising his wares as

THOSE INTERMINABLE HOVELS by Richardson 'Pamela," "Clarissa Harlowe" and "Sir Charles Grandison," fre to be reprinted in London in cheap ditions. It is doubtful if the modern world will find time or patience to read them. We should as soon think of reviving "Parthenissa" or Sydney's

'Arcadia." JAPANESE LITERATURE is not abundant. Twentyfour books were published in Japan last year, of which nearly all were translations. With one ex-ception they relate to what were, till lately, foreign subjects. Seven were translations of foreign ele. nentary works on chemistry and physics, four on geography, two on American history and three on

SIR W. FAIRBAIRN, whose works on fron ship building and the strength of materials are authori-ties, says that "if you double the length of a ship you weaken her just one-half. And the evil does not stop here, because if the cargo capacity be enlarged in the same proportion, and used, the ship's strength is diminished four times. What are called 'clipper ships' are not safe." Mr. Thorold Rogers, whose books on political economy and "History of Agriculture and Prices" are well known, will stand for Parliament in the liberal interest. BOMBAY CONTRIBUTES to the Vienna Exhibition a omplete set of all the native newspapers printed

REAL ESTATE MATTERS.

The Famous Brachurst Sale To-Day-High Prices Predicted for the Property—A Huge Sale of East Side Land on the 30th Instant.

on the 30th Instant.

Not since the Spring trade fairly opened with the impotus given thereto by the Post estate, has there been such an intense excitement as thatereated by the disposition of the Bradhurst estate, which will take place to day noon at the Real Estate Exchange. As this property is attuated in the most favorable portion of the city, it is safe to predict therefor, the greatest success. The land embraced in this estate, and located on avenue St. Micholas, Tenth avenue, 147th, 148th and 149th streets, presents a most maxinifecent prospect. A plain view can be had of the liarlem and Hudson Rivers and the Long island Sound. It is safe to predict that the highest prices will be realized for this property, as it is not of an every day occurrence that over one nundred and a quarter of such mannificent lots are released from the thraidom of a partition and thrown upon the market.

The effect this sale will have upon the surrounding property must be most salutary. All that is required now in this locality is rapid transit to and fro, and realty in this locality is rapid transit to and fro, and realty in this location will be as valuable as at any point on the west side.

Messrs. Muller, Wilkins & Co. conduct this sale in the same manner as they have managed the three great Post, Carman and Harsen estates. A number of our heavy operators and land o works have been anxiously waiting for the sale of the Bradhurst estate, and as many moneyed parties are anxiousle sectuals and as many moneyed parties are anxiousles sectuals. Thurspay, the 221 inst., we are to have a large sale of the title to the pidning will be spirited and interesting.
